OPPORTUNITIES AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

Assistant Professor: Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies (Yale University)

Deadline: 15 October 2012

The Yale University Program in Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies intends to make a tenure-track assistant professor appointment, to begin July 1, 2013, in the field of gender, sexuality and transnational migration. We are interested in seeking research on migration across the Global South, and especially across and within Africa, Latin America, South-east Asia, and the Caribbean. Scholars in the social and human sciences, humanities, law, environmental studies, as well as those trained in interdisciplinary fields are encouraged to apply. Yale University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer. Yale values diversity among its students, staff, and faculty and strongly welcomes applications from women and underrepresented minorities. Ph.D. expected. A cover letter describing your engagement with Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies, a research statement, a teaching statement, a C.V., a two-page dissertation abstract, a chapter-length writing sample, and three letters of reference should be submitted to <https://academicpositions.yale.edu>. Review of applications will begin October 15, 2012.

World Food Day: 16 October

World Food Day is rapidly approaching on 16 October. The UN World Food Programme have recently launched their 2012 World Food Day Campaign. The focus of the campaign is a video that you can watch here: <http://www.wfp.org/wfd>. Simply by watching this video and taking a 3 question quiz. By taking this short quiz, you'll ensure a child like Molly, the focus of the WFD Campaign, receives a school meal.
