

Australian Council for Human Rights
Education

Curtin University

CENTRE FOR HUMAN RIGHTS EDUCATION

THE NEXT GENERATION: STRENGTH, VISION & LEGACY

6-13 JULY 2025

Reflecting on NAIDOC 2025 Webinar

31ST JULY 2025 6PM AEST

ACHRE & CHRE Human Rights Education
2025 Webinar Series

Please join us to hear from:

Lil Gordon, National Commissioner for Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander Children & Young People (Acting)

Marleigh Zada, Course Coordinator, Centre for Aboriginal Studies, Curtin University

chaired by NAIDOC Co-chair Professor Lynette Riley

This highly experienced panel will discuss pertinent matters for the next generation of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people including:

- Why this Theme: The Next Generation: Strength, Vision & Legacy?
- First Nations children and youth, their vulnerabilities and resilience
- Much to celebrate as NAIDOC Week turns 50, but also much to learn
- Addressing homelessness and housing crisis for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander young People

THE NEXT GENERATION: STRENGTH, VISION & LEGACY

6-13 JULY 2025

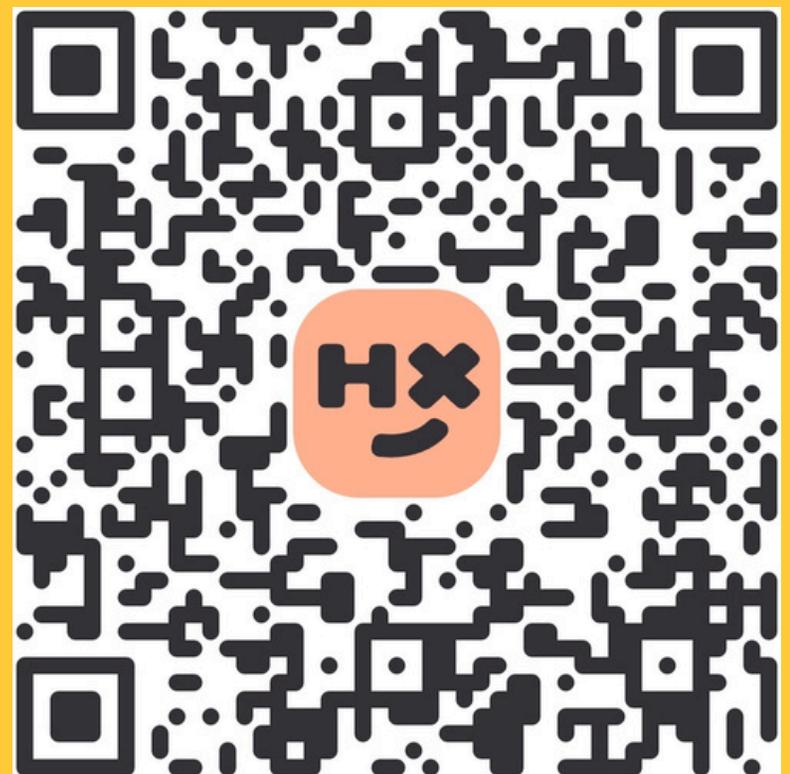

Lil Gordon, National Commissioner for Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander Children & Young People (Acting) and proud Ngemba woman from Brewarrina in Northern NSW with 34 years of experience working in and alongside Aboriginal communities.

Marleigh Zada, a proud Barkindji and Afghan woman and Coordinator of Enabling Courses (Centre for Aboriginal Studies, Curtin University) who is passionate about empowering Aboriginal young people to embrace opportunities for personal and professional growth

NAIDOC Co-chair Professor Lynette Riley, proud Wiradjuri and Gamilaroi woman and Chair of Aboriginal Education and Indigenous Studies, in the Sydney School of Education and Social Work at the University of Sydney.

Ancestral Lines by Jeremy Morgan Worrall

RSVP

<https://events.humanitix.com/reflecting-on-naidoc-2025-webinar>